Literacy (Discipline)	Image	Organization	Description	URL
Author Reading Program- ELA, Creative Writing, Social Studies (Help to provide a sense of self, community, and place)		Saskatchewan Writers Guild	The SWG Author Readings Program makes it possible for people of all ages to meet and listen to their favourite Saskatchewan authors and storytellers through this subsidized reading program. Readings can occur in-person or online. (In-person readings must follow government and school guidelines.) In addition to reading from their published work, authors may also speak about life as an author, idea creation, the writing or publishing process, or other topics that align with curriculum. (K-12)	https://skwriter.com/programs-and-services/author-readings-program
Windscrip Magazine- ELA, Creative Writing, Social Studies (Help to provide a sense of self, community, and place and create engaged citizens)		Saskatchewan Writers Guild	Windscrip has been publishing the best of Saskatchewan high school students' literature since 1983. Each year, students submit poetry or prose to the magazine (by January 15) for a chance to be published. Students receive 2 copies of the magazine and $30 upon publication as well as the opportunity to participate in a magazine launch in May.
